

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH
Veterans Day Commemoration Ceremony 2019
 Preliminary Nomination Form
 Deadline for Nominations: August 31, 2019

Since 1998, the University of Utah Veterans Day Committee has selected Utah veterans and service members to be honored in a special military commemoration ceremony and luncheon. Nominations are currently being accepted for the event to be held on Monday, November 11, 2019. Nominations are accepted for individuals living in Utah who served or serve in the U.S. Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard or National Guard; on active duty or the reserves; for any length of time; in any location; and who have not been separated from these services without an honorable discharge. Nominees do not have to be alumni or associated with the university. Each year, the committee selects eleven honorees based on noteworthy service, honor, courage, commitment, and sacrifice during their military service to our nation, but decorations for valor are not required. Selections are based only on the nominee's military service.

Instructions: This is the preliminary nomination form. If the nominee is selected as a finalist, the committee will require additional details and documentation to verify the nominee's service and awards. Please fill out the form completely, attaching additional sheets as necessary. Each item on the form will expand to accommodate additional text when filled out online or with Microsoft Word. Neatly hand-written nominations are accepted via mail or via email as scanned documents. Finalists will be identified by August 31, 2019, and the selection of honorees is expected to be completed by September 30, 2019. Please direct any inquiries to the University of Utah Veterans Support Center at 801-587-7722.
